1.13-ounce disher with black squeeze handle

The Vollrath® squeeze-handle disher promises improved serving speed and consistent portions, resulting in less food waste and larger profits. This disher features a comfortable handle design and a simple two-part construction that eliminates the concern over loss of parts. The color-coded handle allows for quick size identification and prevents cross contamination. While this disher isn't designed for frozen or hard food items, it does allow you to serve rice, potatoes, desserts and other soft foods with ease.
